Our vision

Those who write catchy slogans or create successful marketing ploys will no doubt already have declared this to be the year for aspiring to 2020 Vision. Most of us don't see that clearly with our eyes or our perception of the world around us, often needing help to see the bigger picture or the finer details of life.

As Christians, none of us should claim to be perfect and most of us fail to see the wood for the trees at some time or other. However, there is this strange verse in our Gospels which is attributed as one of the sayings of Jesus: "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect!"

God calls us as Christians to emulate that same divinely inspired desire not to stand aloof from messiness and pain, but to get involved right at the heart of things, and to make a difference for good in the midst of hopeless, unglamorous or unpromising situations.

In the second century, St Irenaeus said: "The glory of God is a human being fully alive!" The angels must surely sing with joy once more: "Glory to God in the highest and peace to God's people on earth!" whenever we display even the smallest acts of kindness and compassion.

Whether we consider ourselves as ordinary and a bit on the edge of things, like the shepherds, just about making ends meet, or whether we count ourselves amongst the more privileged and comfortably off, like the three wise men, who can afford to risk going on adventures in life – whichever may be the circumstance into which we were born, consider that God may be calling each of us to come a bit closer to Christ as we enter this New Year.

I hope this year we may increasingly see ourselves as God in Christ sees us, considered no less his beloved child than was Jesus himself. It reminds us, as we approach Ash Wednesday at the end of the month, that we are called to delight in God's world and sacrificially to enable others to do the same.

If Christmas is for children, then Lent is for grownups! It is a time of self-discipline and giving. A time to study the word more deeply, a time to put away childish things, to think about God's mission.

May our vision as the Anglican Church here in this community ever remain unclouded by selfishness and insularity, and may we ever be alert to responding in love to the needs of the world, starting with our nearest and dearest and then looking beyond them to help relieve the plight of the poor. May God grant us clarity of vision this New Year and always!

Sunday evening Services

It is with regret that it has been decided that unless there is a dramatic increase in attendance at 6.30pm Evensong we will discontinue these weekly services on Sundays.

The numbers taking part has dwindled in recent months to less than half a dozen on many occasions.

We would have one service of Evensong on the first Sunday in the month. The decision will be taken at the end of February, depending on attendance in January and February.

Easter Lily Scheme

This continues to run and is still as popular as ever. It has been running since 1956. The minimum subscription remains at £1 per name and because of your generosity, this has not changed for many years. The names of departed loved ones are displayed on the Altar from Easter to Whitsun. The money is used to decorate the church at Easter with lilies and daffodils. Any money raised in excess enables us to decorate our church with fresh flowers throughout the year. If you would like to participate in the scheme, please contact:- Vanessa Cole (0203 665 2686) or (07543 983635) or vanessacole1@outlook.com If you have participated in the scheme before, you will receive a letter in February. For new participants, and to comply with the Data Protection Act 2018, I will need people to sign a form consenting to allow me to keep the details on file. The closing date for donations and names (please PRINT these) is Friday 3rd April 2020.

A MONTHLY NEWS ROUND-UP FOR THE PARISH OF ALDBOROUGH HATCH

SEPTEMBER 1980

The Vicar Writes...
September is an important month for us all, for we have both the Confirmation and the Harvest Festival. I hope that we shall all support the candidates by our presence and prayers on Sunday, 21st September.

The prospect of yellow lines in the Parish seems as a smudge. I have always felt sorry for those who live in Cromfield Avenue, who have cars parked outside their houses on every week day. I hadn't noticed, however, any lunatic problem for the adjoining roads - but I may be wrong about this.

Before our Borough Council starts to use paint brushes on roads in the Parish they might give a little more thought to the parking problems we all face at Newbury Park Station and at the GreenGate. Maybe the tube station is not its responsibility - but the problem is there just the same.

Harvest
Tickets for the Harvest Supper will be available from Yvonne Jeffries (599-7250) shortly.

Tramps!
Friday 17th September is the night when Shirley and Peter Budge are hosting a 'Tramps' Supper and Barbecue at Aldborough Hall Farm. It starts at 8.0pm and runs till 11.0pm (599-4365) has the tickets.

Potters!
Pat Hinks is looking for volunteers who will pot attractive plants or bulbs for the Bazaar at the end of November. If you can help, please telephone Pat on 590-8456.

Care
We are trying to care for the Churchward a little more. Some of the Church organisations are taking over small areas and if you or your family would be willing to do the same Debra Menear would be delighted to hear from you on 590-5864. Our horticulture garden needs as much support as we can give it.

No 9s?
We have been asked to request our readers to 'leave your wool and your number nines' for an event in January. It's to do with knitting (a skill in which we have little proficiency - that we are prepared to admit!). More news shortly...

Bazaar
This year's Church Bazaar is to be a one-day event on Saturday 29th November - no Friday opening. More news later...

If you have a spare bookcase or can put up shelves in the Vestry for the 'Bookie's books' please contact Debra Menear on 590-5864.

Forty years ago!

At about this time of the year, forty years ago, the Revd Bill Barnes asked me to take over editing the parish magazine. The Vicar produced this – three or four times a year on a duplicator, running to some 12 pages. I agreed, but it would be monthly and two sides of A4. Not enough, said the Vicar. Two sides of A4 or nothing, said I. Never, said the Vicar, but he came back with eight pages. Two sides of A4 said I. Never, said the Vicar, but he caved in with the comment that it would never last – and here we are some 470 issues and 40 years later and, if I may dare to say so, still going strong. The first issue was a paste-up job, typed on an electric typewriter - for there were no computers or internet forty years ago and the first mobile phones were the size of a house brick and had to be carried in a briefcase. The Vicar insisted I had a committee. It met once and I have not called another meeting since. Derek Smith generously printed the 1,500 copies free of charge at his printing works. The front page of the first copy, dated September 1980, is reproduced above. More next month. RJ
